AN OVERVIEW OF THE UNIFORMS IN THE NATIONAL POLICE CADET CORPS

INTRODUCTION

Organised bodies throughout the world frequently use uniforms to identify themselves. The role of the National Police Cadet Corps (NPCC) uniform is to provide a sense of identity with the parent body, in this case, the Singapore Police Force (SPF) and its roles in society. However, there is nonetheless a need to differentiate the NPCC uniform from that of the Singapore Police Force (SPF) so as to establish its distinct look and corporate identity as a youth organisation.

- 2 The NPCC uniform is endorsed and approved by SPF and NPCC Council.

THE NATIONAL POLICE CADET CORPS UNIFORMS THROUGH ITS HISTORY

- 3 The National Police Cadet Corps (NPCC) uniform follows the Singapore Police Force (SPF) uniform very closely, changing accordingly with the parent body, while maintaining its unique features.

- 4 SPF replaced the pre-war khaki uniform after World War Two in 1945, to the black beret, grey flannel shirt, khaki shorts, dark blue hoesetops (for officers), black boots, black leather belt and navy blue whistle lanyard. When the trial unit for NPCC was set up in 1959, it adopted the uniform similar to the SPF.

- 5 In 1969, when the present police uniform, made up of a peaked-cap, dark blue shirt and trousers, black belt, blue and white corded whistle lanyard, black socks and black boots, was introduced, the NPCC followed suit. In 1972, the whistle lanyard was changed from the SPF blue & white cord (orange for NPCC) to a silver coloured metal chain. In 1985, the uniform material was changed from 75% polyester and 25% cotton to 100% polyester, which gave a much smarter appearance.

6 More recently, in 2009, both NPCC Council and SPF endorse further changes to the uniform. The new changes consist of the change of badge cap and button from using 'SPF crest' to using 'NPCC crest', as well as the change of shoulder rank epaulettes by incorporating the acronym 'NPCC' in the shoulder rank epaulettes for all NPCC Officers and Cadets.

7 Throughout the years, there have been major improvements as well as minor adjustments in the NPCC uniforms, following in the footsteps of the SPF-uniforms, to cater for attendance at different occasions. These continual improvements in the uniform help the NPCC to project a modern, progressive and professional image and meet the ever-demanding requirements of a rapidly changing society.

OBJECTIVES

- 8 The objectives of this Uniform Manual are as follows: -
- a To guide Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets to be smartly and properly attired at different occasions.
 - b To align the uniforms of NPCC Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets with the parent body, the Singapore Police Force.
 - c To ensure uniformity amongst Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

a. SENIOR OFFICERS

Senior Parliamentary Secretary (Education) appointed Officers, including Honorary Officers or any Officer with the rank of Inspector and above.

b. YOUTH LEADERS

This includes Senior Cadet Inspectors and Cadet Inspectors.

c. CADETS

This includes Station Inspectors and all other Cadet ranks.

STANDARD UNIFORMS OF THE NPCC

a. CEREMONIAL UNIFORM (DRESS No. 1)

This is the most prestigious uniform of the National Police Cadet Corps. It is worn by Cadets and Officers of all ranks when participating in official parades and functions.

b. GENERAL DUTIES UNIFORMS (DRESS No. 3)

This is the working dress of the Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets of all ranks. It comes with a tunic and tucked-in shirt or blouse. Tunic is only issued to Officers. The tunic issued to Officers is worn when performing staff or indoor duties only. It is worn for their daily duties. Youth Leaders and Cadets are expected to be in their uniform with tucked-in shirt or blouse when performing footdrill, attending weaponry training or lectures in the Unit, or courses organised by NPCC HQ and during police establishment attachments unless otherwise stated.

c. COMBAT UNIFORM (DRESS No. 4 – FOR NPCC SEA UNITS ONLY)

This uniform, similar to the Police Coast Guard (PCG), is worn by Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets of all ranks in the NPCC Sea Units.

d. SPECIAL FUNCTIONS UNIFORM (DRESS No. 5)

This is worn by Officers attending foreign and local functions, courses and seminars. It is the intermediate Dress worn whenever the wearing of Ceremonial uniform is too official and the use of General Duties Uniform would be too casual. For NPCC, this uniform is issued only to Assistant Commandants, Liaison Officers and HQ Staff.

This set of uniform comes in four variations as follows:

- No. 5 (E) (or No. 5 Enhanced) – This is the full set of uniform comprising the jacket, shirt and tie, and worn with the medals. It is worn as specified in the invitation card for the occasion. It may be worn when the Guest of Honour or Reviewing Officer and VVIPs are attired in lounge suit (coat and tie), and when the occasion specifies uniforms for uniformed officers.
- No. 5 (J) (No. 5 Jacket) – This is similar to No. 5 (E) except that service ribbons are worn in place of medals.
- No. 5 (T) (Shirt & Tie) – This is normally worn when the occasion specifies uniforms for uniformed officers, and wearing of long-sleeved with tie or smart casual for civilians.
- No. 5 (S) (Shirt without tie) – This is normally worn when the occasion specifies uniforms for uniformed officers and smart casual attire for civilians.

e. PHYSICAL TRAINING ATTIRE (PT-KIT)

This is worn by Officers, Youth Leaders and Cadets of all ranks involved in physical training, games or fatigue duties.
